3rd
Week

I would say I have learned a lot at Strive, Now that it is the the last week, I'm starting to miss the staff and my co-workers.

We are doing mock interviews preparing cover letters and resumes I'm feeling a lot more confident about the interviewing process and I'm hoping that this essay is our final written assignment laugh out loud. I look at Strive now as part of my family and a wonderful support system that taught me professional value that will follow me for the rest of my life. As I was leaving the work shop on my way home a woman stopped and asked me "what do they do in there?" and I felt really good about explaining what the program is about and the benefits it has to offer. That was a total change of opinion before I took the class. A lot of people know about Strive but fail to understand the Asset it is to the Community. Strive not only help me but it produces a quality of people that have a more positive outlook on life and there future
