

LOR

6/30/09
Tuesday

Essay 250 words

What/if anything did you learn from the STRIVE workshop?

→ Yes, certainly, I have learnt many things from the STRIVE workshop. I have learnt how to fill up the applications, prepare a resume, tips for getting and holding jobs, dress professional, present myself in interviews, participate in group activities and as a whole employability skills.

I totally lacked the skills that I have mentioned above, but now I have knowledge about all the skills and qualities that a good employee should have. I learnt how to work with different job applications, the things that are to be kept into considerations to fill the applications and ~~resume~~ prepare a resume. Furthermore I learnt about different personal and professional things and its difference. I know that we have to be more professional than personal when it comes to work. Dress professional, Look professional and use professional words are the three main sectors that STRIVE ~~focused about~~ <sup>on</sup>, I believe that I have certainly achieved all those three qualities to help myself to be a professional employee. It's definitely going to help me render a professional life throughout my life. In addition to that STRIVE imparted some good techics and tricks to get and keep the job. The full credit goes to the whole STRIVE family. STRIVE really has broken the shackles of my inability for being employed. I believe in myself, my ability and capabilis and I hope ~~that~~ I will be getting a good job in the coming days and see myself in a better stage and conditions. My firm base for job interviews is created by STRIVE which is a real plus point for me.

At last but not the least, I want to thank STRIVE family for imparting employability skills in my vacuum brain, providing me beautiful suit which I am getting chance to put on for the first time, Clarifying me about the differences between personal and professional behaviours, introduce myself and <sup>my</sup> personal life with ~~different~~ friends of different culture, caste, creed, race, origin and religion, I learnt how to deal with people <sup>with</sup> ~~of~~ different thoughts. STRIVE without doubt have contributed a lot for me, It made me preety hopeful from hopeless. God bless STRIVE family to provide social service for thousands years