My journey through Strive

My journey through Strive was a great experience for me I learned a lot about myself and about my class mates. I thought I knew what I was doing as far as filling out applications but I was wrong. I took the time to listen and learn even tho I didn't want to. It didn't hurt to suck it up and go through it. It's making me a better person. Tirzah is tough but fair I feel closer to her ~~then~~ before that's ^{my} sister now and I will never forget her. I'm a take the tools I learned and apply them not just to get back in the work force but also in my everyday life consistently. I had and still have my problem but I know how to pick my battles. My classmate I'm very proud of them too. We started out as a huge class but now it's only a small few I can say we made it. Everyone here were supportive of each other and that made it a lot ~~easy~~ easier to go through the class. When I leave here it's back to work looking for work is work and I really get it now

I plan on doing the same as if I'm still in class just less days but staying focused on the task at hand I'm a come here to do my job search do cold calls and milk strive staff for everything I can get from them and more.
It's hard for me to put thing on paper but I'll bring
