

200
word
Essay

My name is Koquette at Strive I learned personally, how to not to bring your personal issues to the workshop, I've understand that if personal issues come to mind that I should deal with the issues with my emotional intelligence technic. I understand that my reliability is a start at Strive an is one of the most important roles I can bring into the work world, I can be reliable to show up early based on Transportation. I've learned personally how to dress appropriately according to the environment. I've learned personally how to deal with my personal life contrasted with my professional life. I've learned professionally how to feel out applications and from my mistakes, I've learned professionally how to respond and interact at job interviews. I understand professionally about different job sites by the different class mates. I've learned personally and professionally what the teachers have experienced in order to get where they are in life, their difficulties and benefits. The teachers are really encouraging, they motivate me, as well as some of the classmates. I understand professionally how to endure hardship on the job and to getting a job.

about you
in a minute

now
know
practice

I understand <sup>and personally</sup> personally that Strive is an on going experience at home and on the job. I've learned so, so many things at Strive in just three weeks. I also learned to stay in contact with the teachers to attend in person after graduation to gain more knowledge on how to deal with the outside world.